JOINING INSTRUCTIONS TO STUDENTS

1. TRAVELLING TO MASINDE MULIRO UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (MMUST)

Masinde Muliro University of Science and Technology (MMUST) is situated within Kakamega Municipality, one kilometer from the town centre along the Kakamega - Webuye Road. The University is served by taxi from the Total Petrol Station located next to the Bus Station.

2. ARRIVAL AND REGISTRATION

Students are expected to arrive between 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on the opening day for registration. Any student arriving after 5:00 p.m. will not be registered nor be given accommodation until the following day.

3. IMMIGRATION

All students who are not citizens of Kenya must be in possession of VALID PASSPORTS BEFORE arriving in Kenya. Temporary travel documents are not acceptable to the Immigration Authority in Kenya. In addition, all non-citizens must obtain re-entry permits from their own territorial Immigration Department to cover the duration of the Programme and must bring their passports with them when they come to register at the University.

4. STUDENTS PERSONAL DETAILS FORM MMU/3

You are required to complete the Students Personal Details Form MMU/3 and attach coloured passport size photograph. The photograph should bear the names of candidate and admission number in FULL (NO INITIALS PLEASE) on the reverse side. (This information is important in the event of the photographs being misplaced). A copy of the student and book can be accessed on the University website: www.mmust.ac.ke

Forward one completed copy of the Students Personal Details Forms (MMU/3) together with the Students Regulation Declaration MMU/2 to the Registrar Academic Affairs immediately. The rest of the provided Forms will be handed in on the day of registration.

Information in the Students Personal Details MMU/3 form is intended to help the Office of the Registrar Academic Affairs understand you better. Any change of Home Contact Address and Telephone number should be communicated to the Registrar's Office in writing.

A student changing their Official Names while at the University should submit a sworn affidavit for the purpose of updating their Personal File records.

5. FEES

(a) FEES

Fees are payable at the beginning of every year or at the beginning of every semester. A copy of the fees structure is posted with this admission handbook (a copy of the fees structure can be viewed on the University website: www.mmust.ac.ke). The fees structure helps students and sponsors to plan payments either per semester; annually or over the duration of the degree programme. An annual fee structure will be available but a four/five year fees structure can be provided upon request. The fees structure is subject to change. Please consult the office of the Registrar Academic Affairs for further details.

(b) Non-Kenyan Students

All Non-Kenyan students must produce evidence of adequate financial support before coming to the university. The evidence must be in the form of a letter from a sponsoring body guaranteeing adequate financial support for the entire duration of the programme. Fees will be collected at the time of registration.

(c) Clothing, Pocket Money, Laundry

Students are advised to bring with them between 6,000/= (Six Thousand Shillings Only) and Kshs.12, 000/= (Twelve Thousand Shillings Only) per Semester for the above expenses. In addition they may bring at least Kshs.5, 000/= (Five Thousand Shillings) for incidental expenses and Kshs. 4,000 (Four Thousand Shillings) per year if you will be in University residence (please refer to the Fees Structure).

6. MEDICAL EXAMINATION

Admission into the University is subject to receipt of a satisfactory Medical Report. Students are, therefore required to undergo medical examination by a recognized government medical practitioner before coming to the University. Form MMU/5 is enclosed for this purpose and should be filled, signed and presented in person on the day of registration.

7. MEDICAL ATTENTION AT THE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

(a) On-Campus Health Care

The University Health Clinic is opened to all students at the Campus. The University provides Out-patient services at the health clinic only when students are in session. Please note that the University does not provide health services as detailed in (b) below. The University is not responsible for expenses incurred with hospitals, physicians or pharmacists. Students seeking their own health care meet their own costs.

(b) Dental, Optical or Other Specialized Treatment

The University does not provide dental, optical or any other specialized treatment. Any student having or suspecting tooth, eye or any other complicated health trouble that may require consultation from a dentist, optician or health specialist should obtain necessary attention from the specialized health care giver. Please note that the costs for such specialized health care should be met by your parent/guardian/sponsor or medical insurance company.

8. GAMES AND SPORTS

Extra-curricular activities are essential for the total human mental and physical development. These activities provide comic relaxation to the stressed, frazzled and exhausted mind, thus afford appropriate outlet for releasing different forms of pressure or anxiety in the world of academia. It is the policy of the University that all students should be encouraged to participate in at least one game and one sport.

The University offers a wide programme of sporting activities for both men and ladies. Students participate in these activities for recreation or competitively. At competitive level, we accord students opportunity to travel widely to compete at inter-university sports bi-annual championships and tournaments organized at local, national and regional Levels.

The students are strongly advised to appreciate the policy of the University that encourages all students to come with their own training and practice kit and appropriate playing equipment for games and sports of their choice. For example, students who intend to participate in any of the following category of games and sports should bring their own playing kit as follows:

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Soccer/football/rugby | - Uniforms and boots |
| 2. Basketball/volleyball/handball/netball | - Uniforms and footwear |

PART OF THE REGULATIONS GOVERNING UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS

A complete text of the Rules and Regulations governing University examinations can be viewed on the MMUST website www.mmust.ac.ke

EXAMINATION IRREGULARITIES SHALL INCLUDE:

Group I

- i. Having unauthorized material in an examination room.
- ii. Attempting to read answer scripts belonging to another candidate.
- iii. Committing a breach of any other examination rule or regulation which may be communicated to the candidate from time to time by the invigilators.
- iv. Presenting for examination the works of another person or persons without acknowledgement and with intent to deceive.
- v. Failing to write a statement.

Group II

- i. Attempting to copy from or making references to unauthorized material(s) or sources in the examination room.
- ii. Attempting to obtain assistance from candidate, or attempting to give assistance to another candidate, directly or indirectly in answering an examination paper.
- iii. Carrying examination scripts, one's/or another candidate's out of the examination room.
- iv. Attempting to carrying examination scripts/answer sheets, one's/or another candidate's, out of the examination room.
- v. Writing on the question paper.

Group III

- i. Reading answer scripts belonging to another candidate.
- ii. Copying from, or destroying or refusing to surrender evidence which may be used as proof of an examination irregularity. Resisting, assaulting an invigilator.
- iii. Obtaining assistance from another candidate, and/or giving assistance to another candidate, directly or indirectly in answering an examination paper.
- iv. Permitting another candidate to copy from or make use of one's papers.
- v. Committing a subsequent examination irregularity after being warned or suspended and readmitted.

PROCEDURE IN DEALING WITH EXAMINATION IRREGULARITIES

- i. Invigilators shall, before each examination, inform candidates of the seriousness with which examination irregularities shall be treated.
- ii. When an Invigilator suspects that a candidate has committed an examination irregularity or irregularities, other Invigilators shall be consulted and the candidate shall be informed that a report shall be submitted to the Deputy Vice Chancellor, Academic Affairs.
- iii. The Invigilator shall, if possible, confiscate the material that is suspect, but the candidate shall be allowed to complete writing the examination.
- iv. The candidate shall, at the end of the examination paper, be asked to make a written statement to be submitted to the Deputy Vice Chancellor, Academic Affairs by the Main Invigilator.
- v. The Main Invigilator and the Chairman of Department shall make a full report on the incident to the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic Affairs) through the Dean or Director of Faculty/School/Institute/Centre immediately after the examination.
- vi. The Main Invigilator's report and the Candidate's statement shall be considered by an Investigation Committee appointed by Senate.
- vii. An Internal Examiner, who in the course of marking examination scripts, suspects that an examination irregularity has taken place, shall consult the Chairman of Department. If the Chairman of Department considers that an examination irregularity has occurred, a full report shall be made to the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic Affairs) through the Dean/Director.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

If it is evidently established that a candidate has committed an examination irregularity, appropriate disciplinary action shall be taken immediately.

Disciplinary action may include:

Group I

- i. Issuance of a letter of warning to the candidate.
- ii. Cancellation of examination results in the course and issuance of a letter of warning.
- iii. Cancellation of examination results in the course and suspension of the candidate for one academic year.

Group II

- i. Cancellation of examination results in the course and suspension of the candidate for two academic years.

Group III

- i. Cancellation of examination results and expulsion from the University.

LEAKAGE OF EXAMINATION

- i. Any person, who suspects that a leakage has taken place, shall immediately report to the Registrar, Academic Affairs.
- ii. Where a leakage has been established as having occurred, the Deputy Vice Chancellor, Academic Affairs shall NULLIFY the examination and order a fresh examination to be set and administered.
- iii. An investigation Committee shall be set up by Senate to investigate the suspected leakage. The Committee shall be constituted comprised of four members of Senate or their representatives, one of whom shall be the Chairman; the Dean/Director of Faculty/School/Centre; Dean of Students and the Registrar Academic Affairs who shall be the Secretary to the Committee.
- iv. The Investigating Committee shall make recommendations to Senate, based on their findings as soon as practicable.
- v. Senate shall take appropriate disciplinary action(s).

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATE AND INVIGILATORS

- a) Candidates shall be allowed into the examination room five minutes before the start of examination. Question papers shall be placed upside-down on the desks before candidates enter the examination room. Candidates must not turn the question paper over until they are instructed to do so.
- b) A candidate, who arrives within the first half hour of the start of the examination, may be allowed into the examination room provided no other candidate has left the room. Such a candidate will have no extension of time to compensate for the lateness.
- c) No candidate shall enter the examination room after 30 minutes from the start of the examination. A candidate who is excluded from the examination under this regulation should report to the Chief Internal Examiner.
- d) Examination registration cards and students identification cards should be conspicuously displayed. Candidates who do not have examination cards shall not be allowed to sit the examination.
- e) Books, bags, notes, rough papers, cell phones or any other such materials that may hinder transparency, or that are likely to raise suspicion should not be carried into an examination room. Log books and calculators should not be brought into the examination room, unless there is a provision to the contrary for a particular paper. All unauthorized materials should be handed over to the Main Invigilator before the start of an examination.
- f) Invigilators shall have powers to confiscate any unauthorized material(s) brought into an examination room. They shall have the power to expel from the examination room, any candidate who creates disturbance and breaches the peace and quite of an examination room.
- g) Candidates should acquaint themselves with the instructions on the front page of the answer books.
- h) Candidates should write their registration numbers, course codes, course titles and paper numbers, on each answer booklet and on continuation sheets.
- i) Candidates are not allowed to communicate with each other, either verbally or through other means, during an examination without the permission of the invigilator.
- j) Candidates are not allowed, in their course and assignments, to reproduce the works of another person, other persons without acknowledgment, and with intent to deceive. This amounts to plagiarism, a serious offense which will lead to disciplinary action being taken against such a candidate.
- k) Smoking is forbidden in an examination room.
- l) Candidates must stop writing and assemble their scripts at the end of the examination, on the instructions of the Main Invigilator and hand in their answer scripts together with their examination cards for signing.
- m) Candidates are not allowed to remove books or sheets from the examination room.
- n) A candidate who is unable to sit an examination should report the circumstances to the Deputy Vice Chancellor, Academic Affairs immediately.
- o) Misreading the examination timetable is not a sufficient cause for failing to sit an examination.
