

MASINDE MULIRO UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY
VICE CHANCELLOR'S ROUND UP FOR THE WEEK ENDING,
FRIDAY, 23RD SEPTEMBER, 2022.

- Masinde Muliro University of Science and Technology (MMUST), through the Webometrics and Short Courses Unit, has continued with the initiative to impact the communities by providing visibility to their enterprises and businesses. On 19th September 2022, the Director, Science Park Innovation and Incubation Centre (SPIIC), Prof. John Muoma together with lecturer- Crop Protection, Dr. Emily N. Indakwa, visited 'Ammanuel Poultry and Animal Feeds' in Indangalasia- Navakholo Sub-County to identify possible areas of collaboration with the Farm. The 'Ammanuel Poultry and Animal Feeds' which was founded by Mr. Kennedy Masanga, is a one-stop farm for poultry, animal feeds and organic farm produce.
- MMUST's leading Ecologist and Specialist in Climate Change Adaptation and Resilience, Dr. Humphrey Agevi, has been picked to join the PlanAdapt organization as a Fellow. Dr. Agevi is a lecturer from the Department of Biological Sciences in the School of Natural Sciences (SONAS). The Fellowship is domiciled in Germany and will involve the identified Fellows attending Climate Co-Adaptation Lab Weekly meetings every Tuesday where they go through the Lab Opportunity Database (LOD).
- MMUST IHELP project Principal Investigator, Dr. Rose Opiyo has advanced the project by establishing a fourth Inclusive Home-Based Early Learning Centre in Idakho East, Ikolomani Sub-County. Yesterday, 22nd September 2022, Dr. Opiyo met the Shiveye ward administrators, Community leadership and its members to discuss on issues pertaining to the establishment of a Caregiving centre in the region.
- MMUST will host the UHAI Festival Western Region to be held tomorrow, Saturday, 24th September 2022. MMUST will also participate in this event that is aimed at giving Persons with Disabilities an opportunity to showcase different talents, celebrate life and network with other members of the society.

I wish you a blessed weekend!
